

Prayer of Mind

A prayer to reprogram your subconscious mind.

Change the beliefs about your life, These beliefs will change your life.

Presented with love to.....

If you do this prayer for twenty one days continuously, then the words of this prayer will program your subconscious mind positively and the words of this prayer will turn into reality in your life.

I feel happy to gift this small present and wish that you achieve heights of peace, happiness and prosperity through positive programming of your mind.

Why Prayer of Mind?

As per the laws of psychology, whatever we do with sincere efforts for twenty one days continuously, it becomes a habit. There are many people in the society who live their lives with negative thoughts and beliefs. This attracts negative incidents in their lives. There is a cosmic law that our outer world is a direct reflection of our inner world. That is why, our negative thoughts and beliefs create a negative atmosphere in our outer world.

If we wish to experience positive events in our outer world, then we have to make our inner world (our thoughts and beliefs) positive. This prayer has been created to make everyone's thoughts and beliefs positive. I am sure if you do this prayer for twenty one days continuously then your thoughts and beliefs will become positive.

Oh! Subconscious Mind
You Are Mighty
I Have Seen Your Power
I Have Complete Trust In You.

I am born with the boon of happiness

This is my prayer, my own prayer.

I know the power of prayer.

So I do this prayer every day, whole heartedly.

My existence on this planet
as a human being is not an accident.

I have been created for a definite purpose.

I am born to do some significant tasks.

I know for sure that there are many qualities within me.

I am utilizing these qualities in my life to the fullest.

I have set my goals to do something worthwhile.

I clearly know what I want to achieve and what I want to give back to the society as my contribution.

I know that balance of success gives happiness and happiness gives peace of mind.

I am being successful everyday in one or the other field.

I am getting happiness in different ways every day. I experience peace everyday.

I am blessed with happiness.

I am always experiencing happiness and spreading happiness.

My mind is a thriving sea of infinite power

I know that my existence is me (i.e. body and my mind).

To achieve success, happiness and peace,
I use my body as well as my mind because I know that my mind is a thriving sea of infinite power.

It is omnipotent and omnipresent.

I am utilizing the unlimited power of my mind in all fields.

I do work hard but my hard work is not limited to my body. I also work with my mind.
I am working in right direction and in a proper way.

My entire hard work is to achieve a definite worthy goal.

I have set definite goals in all the four aspects of life i.e. physical, social, mental and spiritual, and to achieve them, I utilize the power of my mind.

My one mind is the boss and other is subordinate.

One is conscious and another is subconscious.

The co-ordination of both minds gives me happiness and peace.

So I am always happy and cheerful!

I take better care of my body

I have control over all the five senses of my body.

All my five senses,
i.e. taste, touch, smell, hearing and sight are functioning to the fullest.
My reflexes are working properly.

My body is active,
energetic, skillful and healthy.

I know that I have to live in my body for years.
That is why I always take better care of it.
I take all possible steps towards good health.

I eat a balanced diet and sleep enough.
I know that health is the most important assets of my life.

That is why I keep myself fit and healthy.

I do nothing at the cost of my health.

My body can do all the activities in proper manner and I can walk a long distance.
I am full of vigour and will always be.

Positive thinking is the foundation of my personality

Thinking is not just a process for me.

I believe that my thoughts are the foundation of my personality.

I know that what I am today is the result of my past thoughts.

And my future depends upon my present thoughts.

That is why, I always think positively.

I look at the positive qualities of all the people.

I think of the positive aspect of any event.

I don't neglect negativity but I overtake it.

I believe that thinking is not everything but everything is based on what you think.

I think uniquely. I think creatively.

I always ponder over good thoughts, even if they are of others.

I always get something new from them.

The comprehension of good thoughts brings a new vision in my life.

Positive thinking is
the foundation of my personality.

I have unlimited power.

I use the power of my mind completely.

I get the desired result from my mind

I train my logic everyday.
Logic creates questions in my mind.
These questions attract the answers to them.
I get satisfaction from knowing and learning new things.
Because of my sharp logic,
I can analyse any human mind, event or situation and on that basis
I come to the correct conclusion.
That always helps me to make the right decision.
I know very well as to when, where and how to utilize my logic.
I use my logic at my own discretion.
I do not allow any logic to hamper my will power even if it is my own.
Because I believe the place of will power and self-confidence is much higher than logic.
That is why I get the desired result from my mind.

I have unlimited power.
I use the power of my mind completely.

I am not just intelligent but awakened

I like to do activities that stimulate my intellect.
I even like the company of intelligent people.
I know very well that to be happy and prosperous in totality, Intelligence Quotient (IQ) is important but Emotional Quotient (EQ) is more important and Spiritual Quotient (SQ) is the most important.
I take care that my mind does not just remain an instrument of logic and analysis.
Purification of emotions and true spirituality only ennobles my mind.
I use the power of my mind for the welfare of other people.
And the more I keep using it,
the stronger it gets.
I am not just intelligent but awakened!

I have unlimited power.
I use the power of my mind completely.

The doors of my mind are always open

Every sunrise in the morning brings new opportunity for me.

Sometimes opportunity to develop a new relationship,

Sometimes opportunity

to better my health,

Sometimes opportunity

to increase my income and sometimes opportunity to learn new things.

I don't wait for opportunity but it comes,

And it keeps coming.

Opportunity does not need to knock my doors,

The doors of my mind

are always open.

As it enters, I recognize it and take appropriate action immediately.

And it is always so.

I have unlimited power.

I use the power of my mind completely.

I am able to take important decisions easily

I know what is good for me and what is bad.

What is right and what is wrong.

When I am at the crossroads of my life, I can decide which one is right and which one is wrong.

At the time of taking a decision, my thinking power, logic, analysis and the judgment come to my help and that helps me to take the right decision.

However important the decision may be,
I am able to take it quickly with sound mind.

I have immense trust on the decisions that I have taken.

I am able to take
important decisions easily.

I have unlimited power.
I use the power of my mind completely.

All the desires rising Within me are noble

I know that desire is the seed of any creation.

Without sowing the seeds of desire, success cannot be harvested.

When desire becomes overpowering, history is shaped.

When desire becomes overpowering,
world-records are created.

When desire becomes overpowering,
revolutions take place.

I am happy that the desires rising within me are positive and noble.

Positive desires help me to set positive goals.

And that is why my goals are for my benefit as well as for the benefit of others.

The first desire rising within me, every moment, is that my goal should not be just for my own self but for the good of everyone.

I have unlimited power.
I use the power of my mind completely.

a way of my life

whether it is given by me or others.

only executes the orders and executes it 100 percent.

That is why
I give only positive commands to it.

I think positive,
I speak positive language and behave positively.

to reach my sub-conscious mind.
